Mrs. Rutter Tells What Tanlac Did. Suffered From Indigestion, Dizzy Spells, Sour Stomach and Frequent Headaches. "Three bottles of Tanlac cured me and I recommend it to those who are troubled as I was. I suffered from indigestion, dizzy spells, sour stomach, frequent headaches, caused I think, because I work in the cold storage box at Scott & Co's, wholesale butter house on Roanoke Avenue, Norfolk, Va. I haven't sour stomach, headaches, or dizzy spells any more and gratefully endorse Tanlac." Signed Mrs. W. C. Rutter, Norfolk, Va.

Educational Conference Of Virginia at Richmond November 28th-December 1st, 1916. The eleventh annual meeting of the Educational Conference of Virginia, which is composed of the State Teachers Association, Division Superintendents Association, School Trustees Association, and the Co-Operative Education Association, will be held in Richmond November 28th to December 1st, inclusive. One of the very best programs ever arranged for the Conference will be carried out at this session. Such prominent men as Dr. Hollis Dain, of Cornell University, Mr. John Kendrick Bangs, the well known playwright, Mr. T. S. Settle, Field Secretary of the National Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America, Hon. E. A. Miller, U. S. Agricultural Department, Dr. Thomas H. Briggs of Columbia University, Dr. George H. Denny, President University of Alabama, Dr. L. W. Payne, Jr., University of Texas, and Dr. William McAndrews of New York City, are some of the prominent speakers that will address the Conference. A special musical program will be rendered by the After-School Violin Classes, the Symphony Orchestra and a Colored Concert Company. A special luncheon will be given by the Merchants Association for all those attending the Conference. Many of the departments of this Conference have been combined, so that there will not be such a large number of meetings in session at the same time as formerly. This will enable those attending the Conference to exercise more liberty in visiting the various sectional conferences. The Superintendents will have their session on Tuesday, but the general meeting will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock so everybody who expects to attend the Conference should plan to reach Richmond Wednesday morning and remain through Friday night. The After-School Violin Classes will render a special musical program Wednesday and Dr. McAndrews will deliver his address Friday night, followed by a special musical program in which the old time southern melodies will be sung and played by a colored musical organization, so that from the very opening session on Wednesday until the closing session on Friday night the meeting will be brim full of interest and pleasure for all who attend. In order to enable a large number to attend the Conference the railroads of the State

Now Well "Theford's Black-Draught is the best all-round medicine I ever used," writes J. A. Steelman, of Pattonville, Texas. "I suffered terribly with liver troubles, and could get no relief. The doctors said I had consumption. I could not work at all. Finally I tried THEOFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT and to my surprise, I got better, and am to-day as well as any man." Theford's Black-Draught is a general, cathartic, vegetable liver medicine, that has been regulating irregularities of the liver, stomach and bowels, for over 70 years. Get a package today. Appalachia Items Mrs. Margaret J. Hoff was the attractive hostess Monday afternoon at a reception from four to six in honor of Miss Virginia Williams, St. Louis, and Miss Angy Manning Taylor, of Chicago. The house was artistically decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Beautiful music was dispensed throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Hoff was assisted by Miss Rachel Wolfe, tea cream, cake and minis were served. The parlor was thronged during the afternoon with guests from Big Stone Gap and this town, who thoroughly enjoyed the charming informality of the occasion. Hazel Fuller, of Big Stone Gap, spent the week end with Marion Holley. Mrs. R. W. Holley visited her brother at Cumberland Gap Sunday. Mrs. Garner Browning, of Norton, was the guest of Mrs. John Davis Saturday. Irvine Huff spent Sunday at Jonesville. Floyd Cloek spent the week end at St. Paul with homefolks. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Fuller, of Kingsport, have been visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McConnell entertained at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Crizer, Miss Carrie Lee King and Letch Tate. Miss Angy Manning Taylor is spending a few days at her home here. Miss Virginia Williams returned Saturday morning from a week's stay in Piqua, Ohio, where she gave bible lectures. On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. E. B. Mouser and Mrs. R. W. Holley attended the County Civic League meeting at Norton. Mrs. Lynch and little daughter, of Asheville, N. C., spent the past week with Mrs. Lynch's sister, Mrs. Alteo Sullivan.

WOODROW WILSON SONG. Tune, Casey Jones. (By Wm. T. Vass Peltz.) Come all you come if you want to hear, A story about a brave feathered deer, New Woodrow Wilson was that Tennessee name, Toss in the White House he won his fame. Now Woodrow heard that he had lost, That Hughes had given him an awful frost, But in the morning things looked less gloomy bright, And Woodrow Wilson was elected that night. Chorus— Woodrow Wilson mounted to the White House, Woodrow Wilson smiling mighty bright, Woodrow Wilson mounted to the White House, And bid farewell to Hughes's sight. Now Hughes thought certain that he had won, And in Woodrow he thought to poke some fun, But in the morning when he awoke His very old knees began to quake, For during the night at half past four Somebody laughed at his hall room door, And broke the news that he had just learned, That the awful landslide had surely turned. Chorus— Woodrow Wilson mounted to the White House, Woodrow Wilson orders in his hand, Woodrow Wilson mounted to the White House, To start his second trip through the promised land.
